
TESCO POLICY

TESCO aims to achieve long term consolidation on the market, and believes that Quality and respect for the Environment and Safety are essential to do so.

Respecting METTS Group fundamental principles to meet the needs and expectations of their clients and interested parties, and achieve the best operating efficiency, TESCO has defined its organizational structure, its work procedures, its processes and resources in order to guaranty the efficiency and continuous improvement of its Management System, according to ISO / TS 16949 and NP EN ISO 14001, this policy serves as a guideline for action and to define the following objectives.

- Achieve a profitable product that meets the requirements of our customers in Quality, Cost and Delivery, by using adequate processes, involving all employees and complying with all legal and regulatory obligations;
- Ensure continuous improvement of the efficiency and effectiveness of our management system, by making available all the necessary resources. The ultimate goal is to reach "0 defects, minimizing the environmental impacts of activities and products;
- Apply effective management system that allows the establishment and improvement of the objectives and targets, whose evolution will be monitored periodically. This commitment with improvement will result in increased satisfaction of our customers and local community.

OUR GUIDELINES:

- The Quality and Environment are a matter to all activities and employees;
- Comply with applicable laws and customer's requirements;
- Emphasizing prevention by establishing a commitment to continuous improvement;
- Promote the motivation and collaboration;
- Promote information, communication and recognition;
- Share this policy to all employees of TESCO, and make it available to clients and general public.

ENVIRONMENTAL ASPECTS MORE IMPORTANT IN TESCO

